

1st Place: Camille Bustamante and Rohan Singeetham
Middlesex County Academy for Allied Health and Biomedical Sciences (Woodbridge, NJ)

This artwork embodies Anita Kirschner's doll. The nesting doll symbolizes the consuming powers of the Nazis, wherein the Jews were gradually oppressed. The first doll represents the Kirschners doll before the Nazis came. Inside, the second doll represents Anita's only memory of her doll, while other Jews were in camps. Lastly, the innermost doll represents how Anita, although reunited with her family, still kept the cracked doll over the years.